

Kode Paket soal : SMA-16.12.101.08

Bidang studi Bahasa Inggris

| | | | | | | |
|---|---|---------------|-----------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1 | Automation is a term which describes the use of machine to control other machines. The process of automation is expected to increase production and to improve our standart of living. Certain form of automatic equipment have been used by the auto industry for many years ti move materials to the assembly line. Ford Motor Company now uses some automatioic controls. At its engine plant in Cleveland. rough cylinder blocks go through a series of 530 automatic operation and come out as finished products in just under fifteen minuts. While may labor leaders fear that automation will cause workers to lose jobs. scientists say it will demand more workers to maintain and to repair the automatic machines. What does the text tell us about? | a. Automation | b. Ford Motor Company | c. The effect of automation | d. Labor leader's concern | e. Improveing the standart of living |
|---|---|---------------|-----------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------------|--------------------------------------|

| | | | | | | |
|---|--|--|---|---|---|--|
| 2 | Automation is a term which describes the use of machine to control other machines. The process of automation is expected to increase production and to improve our standart of living. Certain form of automatic equipment have been used by the auto industry for many years ti move materials to the assembly line. Ford Motor Company now uses some automatioic controls. At its engine plant in Cleveland. rough cylinder blocks go through a series of 530 automatic operation and come out as finished products in just under fifteen minuts. While may labor leaders fear that automation will cause workers to lose jobs. scientists say it will demand more workers to maintain and to repair the automatic machines. What is the main idea of the second paragraph? (start While ...) | a. the damand for more workers is increasing | b. the labor leader's fear is completely without reason | c. the are two different opinions about the use of automation | d. it is absolutely wrong that automation causes unemployment | e. more workers are needed to maintain and repair automatic machines |
| 3 | Automation is a term which describes the use of machine to control other machines. The process of automation is expected to increase production and to improve our standart of living. Certain form of automatic equipment have been used by the auto industry for many years ti move materials to the assembly line. Ford Motor Company now uses some automatioic controls. At its engine plant in Cleveland. rough cylinder blocks go through a series of 530 automatic operation and come out as finished products in just under fifteen minuts. While may labor leaders fear that automation will cause workers to lose jobs. scientists say it will demand more workers to maintain and to repair the automatic machines. Which of the following is not true about automation? | a. automation is not effective | b. automation consumes less time | c. automation controls other machines | d. automation is expected to increase product | e. automation might improve the standart of living |

| | | | | | | |
|---|--|----------------------|-------------------------|----------------------------|-------------------------|--------------------------|
| 4 | Automation is a term which describes the use of machine to control other machines. The process of automation is expected to increase production and to improve our standart of living. Certain form of automatic equipment have been used by the auto industry for many years ti move materials to the assembly line. Ford Motor Company now uses some automatioic controls. At its engine plant in Cleveland. rough cylinder blocks go through a series of 530 automatic operation and come out as finished products in just under fifteen minuts. While may labor leaders fear that automation will cause workers to lose jobs. scientists say it will demand more workers to maintain and to repair the automatic machines. The type of the text above is a/an? | a. report | b. recount | c. description | d. discussion | e. explanation |
| 5 | Automation is a term which describes the use of machine to control other machines. The process of automation is expected to increase production and to improve our standart of living. Certain form of automatic equipment have been used by the auto industry for many years ti move materials to the assembly line. Ford Motor Company now uses some automatioic controls. At its engine plant in Cleveland. rough cylinder blocks go through a series of 530 automatic operation and come out as finished products in just under fifteen minuts. While may labor leaders fear that automation will cause workers to lose jobs. scientists say it will demand more workers to maintain and to repair the automatic machines. What tense is mostly used in the text? | a. simple past tense | b. simple present tense | c. present continuos tense | d. present future tense | e. present perfect tense |

| | | | | | | |
|---|--|---|---|---|--|---|
| 6 | "Had Sari been able to speak English fluently. the Dean would absolutely have chosen her to attend the International Student Conference in England." From the above sentence we may conclude that? | a. Sari attended before she entered the university | b. Sari was very happy that she got a chance to visit England | Sari refused to go to the conference as she couldn't speak English fluently | d. sari did not go to England for the International Student conference | e. Sari regretted so much that she had never taken any English course |
| 7 | The bitter strike over pay and redundancies has now lasted over 8 weeks. Shipbuilders have told their leaders to "fight to the end" to stop dockyards from closing and 2.000 of their men losing their job. Sir Albert Pringle. chairman of British Shipbuilders. has asked Peter arkwright. the president of the shipbuilders' Union. to attend a meeting next Thurday. Meanwhile. the Government has oedered Sir Albert to give important naval contracts to the Japanese. The purpose of the text is..? | a. to persuade readers to be careful with their employees | b. to inform readers about a newsworthy events | c. to share an amusing story with readers. | d. to describe a report about something. | e. to describe a strike in a company. |
| 8 | The bitter strike over pay and redundancies has now lasted over 8 weeks. Shipbuilders have told their leaders to "fight to the end" to stop dockyards from closing and 2.000 of their men losing their job. Sir Albert Pringle. chairman of British Shipbuilders. has asked Peter arkwright. the president of the shipbuilders' Union. to attend a meeting next Thurday. Meanwhile. the Government has oedered Sir Albert to give important naval contracts to the Japanese. What is the text about? | a. Peter Arkwright | b. Sir Albert Pringle | c. shipnuilder's strike | d. British shipbuilders. | e. shipbuilders' Union |

| | | | | | | |
|----|---|--|--|---|---|--|
| 9 | The bitter strike over pay and redundancies has now lasted over 8 weeks. Shipbuilders have told their leaders to "fight to the end" to stop dockyards from closing and 2.000 of their men losing their job. Sir Albert Pringle, chairman of British Shipbuilders, has asked Peter Arkwright, the president of the shipbuilders' Union, to attend a meeting next Thursday. Meanwhile, the Government has ordered Sir Albert to give important naval contracts to the Japanese. The strike happened because..? | a. the strike had lasted over 8 weeks. | b. workers wanted changes on pay and redundancies. | c. Sir Albert Pringle has attended a meeting on Thursday. | d. Sir Albert gave important naval contracts to the Japanese. | e. the shipbuilders' leaders fought to the end to stop dockyards from closing. |
| 10 | The bitter strike over pay and redundancies has now lasted over 8 weeks. Shipbuilders have told their leaders to "fight to the end" to stop dockyards from closing and 2.000 of their men losing their job. Sir Albert Pringle, chairman of British Shipbuilders, has asked Peter Arkwright, the president of the shipbuilders' Union, to attend a meeting next Thursday. Meanwhile, the Government has ordered Sir Albert to give important naval contracts to the Japanese. Who asked Peter Arkwright to attend a meeting next Thursday? | a. the strikes. | b. the Japanese. | c. the government. | d. the chairman of British Shipbuilders. | e. the president of Shipbuilders Union. |