

Kode Paket soal : SMP-I4.9.101.08

Bidang studi Bahasa Inggris

1 One warm spring day Mrs. Kulka went to the park near her house. She sat down on a park bench and started to read a letter from her daughter, Vivian. Vivian and her husband, John and their two children, Alexander and Evic, were in Florida on vacation for two weeks. Vivian said that they were having a wonderful time, and she sent some post cards in the letter. The post cards showed pictures of Florida. Mrs. Kulka smiled as she read her letter again. She was happy that they were having a good time. While she was reading, a man came and sat down at the other end of the bench. He opened his newspaper and began to read. Suddenly the post cards blew out of Mrs. Kulka's hand and fell on the ground. They started to blow away. Mr. Marks quickly reached down and helped Mrs. Kulka pick them up. Mrs. Kulka thanked him and showed him the post cards. Then they introduced themselves. It was the beginning of a very pleasant friendship. Mrs. Kulka was happy because....

- |                  |                                     |                                    |                         |
|------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| a. She was alone | a. Her daughter's family were happy | c. Her daughter's family were gone | d. She had a friendship |
|------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------|

2 One warm spring day Mrs. Kulka went to the park near her house. She sat down on a park bench and started to read a letter from her daughter, Vivian. Vivian and her husband, John and their two children, Alexander and Evic, were in Florida on vacation for two weeks. Vivian said that they were having a wonderful time, and she sent some post cards in the letter. The post cards showed pictures of Florida. Mrs. Kulka smiled as she read her letter again. She was happy that they were having a good time. While she was reading, a man came and sat down at the other end of the bench. He opened his newspaper and began to read. Suddenly the post cards blew out of Mrs. Kulka's hand and fell on the ground. They started to blow away. Mr. Marks quickly reached down and helped Mrs. Kulka pick them up. Mrs. Kulka thanked him and showed him the post cards. Then they introduced themselves. It was the beginning of a very pleasant friendship. Where was Mrs. Kulka?

a. at home reading newspaper

b. in the park reading her letter

c. in the park reading her letter

d. in the park seeing her pictures

3 One warm spring day Mrs. Kulka went to the park near her house. She sat down on a park bench and started to read a letter from her daughter, Vivian. Vivian and her husband, John and their two children, Alexander and Evic, were in Florida on vacation for two weeks. Vivian said that they were having a wonderful time, and she sent some post cards in the letter. The post cards showed pictures of Florida. Mrs. Kulka smiled as she read her letter again. She was happy that they were having a good time. While she was reading, a man came and sat down at the other end of the bench. He opened his newspaper and began to read. Suddenly the post cards blew out of Mrs. Kulka's hand and fell on the ground. They started to blow away. Mr. Marks quickly reached down and helped Mrs. Kulka pick them up. Mrs. Kulka thanked him and showed him the post cards. Then they introduced themselves. It was the beginning of a very pleasant friendship. Who did Mrs. Kulka meet in the park?

a. her friend from her hometown, Mr. Marks.

b. her relative, Mr. Marks

c. her old friend, Mr. Marks

d. her new friend, Mr. Marks

4 One warm spring day Mrs. Kulka went to the park near her house. She sat down on a park bench and started to read a letter from her daughter, Vivian. Vivian and her husband, John and their two children, Alexander and Evic, were in Florida on vacation for two weeks. Vivian said that they were having a wonderful time, and she sent some post cards in the letter. The post cards showed pictures of Florida. Mrs. Kulka smiled as she read her letter again. She was happy that they were having a good time. While she was reading, a man came and sat down at the other end of the bench. He opened his newspaper and began to read. Suddenly the post cards blew out of Mrs. Kulka's hand and fell on the ground. They started to blow away. Mr. Marks quickly reached down and helped Mrs. Kulka pick them up. Mrs. Kulka thanked him and showed him the post cards. Then they introduced themselves. It was the beginning of a very pleasant friendship. What did Mr. Marks do in the park?

- a. He intended to meet Mrs. Kulka
- b. He bought and read newspaper there.
- c. He read his newspaper there.
- d. He passed by the park.

5 One warm spring day Mrs. Kulka went to the park near her house. She sat down on a park bench and started to read a letter from her daughter, Vivian. Vivian and her husband, John and their two children, Alexander and Evic, were in Florida on vacation for two weeks. Vivian said that they were having a wonderful time, and she sent some post cards in the letter. The post cards showed pictures of Florida. Mrs. Kulka smiled as she read her letter again. She was happy that they were having a good time. While she was reading, a man came and sat down at the other end of the bench. He opened his newspaper and began to read. Suddenly the post cards blew out of Mrs. Kulka's hand and fell on the ground. They started to blow away. Mr. Marks quickly reached down and helped Mrs. Kulka pick them up. Mrs. Kulka thanked him and showed him the post cards. Then they introduced themselves. It was the beginning of a very pleasant friendship. After Mr. Marks helped Mrs. Kulka, she picked up the post card and...

- a. She went home.
- b. She thanked him, and she went home.
- c. She thanked, introduced themselves and began to talk
- d. She thanked, introduced themselves and went home.

One warm spring day Mrs. Kulka went to the park near her house. She sat down on a park bench and started to read a letter from her daughter, Vivian. Vivian and her husband, John and their two children, Alexander and Evic, were in Florida on vacation for two weeks. Vivian said that they were having a wonderful time, and she sent some post cards in the letter. The post cards showed pictures of Florida. Mrs. Kulka smiled as she read her letter again. She was happy that they were having a good time. While she was reading, a man came and sat down at the other end of the bench. He opened his newspaper and began to read. Suddenly the post cards blew out of Mrs. Kulka's hand and fell on the ground. They started to blow away. Mr. Marks quickly reached down and helped Mrs. Kulka pick them up. Mrs. Kulka thanked him and showed him the post cards. Then they introduced themselves. It was the beginning of a very pleasant friendship. "It was the beginning of a very pleasant friendship" (last line). The underlined word in the sentence means?

- 6 a. boring                      b. friendly                      c. joyful                      d. wonderful

(1)buying - (2)did not - (3)clothes - (4)money - (5)much - (6)we - (7)spend -(8)for The best arrangement of the words to make a good sentence is.....

- 7 a. 6-2-7-5-4-8-1-3      b. 3-2-1-6-7-5-4-8      c. 6-2-7-5-3-1-4-8      d. 3-2-5-1-6-7-4-8

Bonnie is getting married today. She is very excited, but she is also very nervous. Bonnie's sister, Marianne tells her to relax and not to worry. She says it's natural to be nervous on your wedding day. But Bonnie can't relax. Bonnie's mother and Marianne help her dressed. They tell her again and again how beautiful she looks in her wedding dress and veil. Bonnie is wearing her mother's wedding dress; the same on Marianne wore two years ago when she got married. The last it is time to go to the church for the wedding ceremony. Bonnie's father has rented a limousine to take them to the church. When they arrive, Bonnie's mother and Marianne tell her again that she looks lovely. Then they kiss her and wish her good luck. Bonnie's father doesn't say ' anything. Suddenly the stop, Bonnie looks at her father and whispers," Daddy, do you think I'm doing the right thing?" Suddenly the stop, Bonnie looks at her father and whispers," Daddy, do you think I'm doing the right thing?" What is the best title of the passage above?

8

- a. Our Wedding Day
- b. Wedding Day
- c. Bonnie's Wedding Day
- d. Before Bonnie's Wedding Day

Bonnie is getting married today. She is very excited, but she is also very nervous. Bonnie's sister, Marianne tells her to relax and not to worry. She says it's natural to be nervous on your wedding day. But Bonnie can't relax. Bonnie's mother and Marianne help her dressed. They tell her again and again how beautiful she looks in her wedding dress and veil. Bonnie is wearing her mother's wedding dress; the same on Marianne wore two years ago when she got married. The last it is time to go to the

- 9 church for the wedding ceremony. Bonnie's father has rented a limousine to take them to the church. When they arrive, Bonnie's mother and Marianne tell her again that she looks lovely. Then they kiss her and wish her good luck. Bonnie's father doesn't say ' anything. Suddenly the stop, Bonnie looks at her father and whispers," Daddy, do you think I'm doing the right thing?" Suddenly the stop, Bonnie looks at her father and whispers," Daddy, do you think I'm doing the right thing?" How does
- a. bored                      b. happy                      c. mad                      d. excited & nervous

Bonnie feel?
Bonnie is getting married today. She is very excited, but she is also very nervous. Bonnie's sister, Marianne tells her to relax and not to worry. She says it's natural to be nervous on your wedding day. But Bonnie can't relax. Bonnie's mother and Marianne help her dressed. They tell her again and again how beautiful she looks in her wedding dress and veil. Bonnie is wearing her mother's wedding dress; the same on Marianne wore two years ago when she got married. The last it is time to go to the

- 10 church for the wedding ceremony. Bonnie's father has rented a limousine to take them to the church. When they arrive, Bonnie's mother and Marianne tell her again that she looks lovely. Then they kiss her and wish her good luck. Bonnie's father doesn't say ' anything. Suddenly the stop, Bonnie looks at her father and whispers," Daddy, do you think I'm doing the right thing?" Suddenly the stop, Bonnie looks at her father and whispers," Daddy, do you think I'm doing the right thing?" How do they go to the crurch?
- a. In a taxi                      b. In a cap                      c. In a limousine                      d. In a family car